

A figure of speech in which the speaker addresses an object, concept or person usually absent that is unable to respond is known as?

Description

A figure of speech in which the speaker addresses an object, concept or person usually absent that is unable to respond is known as?

- (A) Apostrophe
- (B) Argument
- (C) Arcadia
- (D) Apion stage

Correct Answer is: A

Category

1. English Solved MCQS for All Tests

Tags

1. A figure of speech in which the speaker addresses an object
2. concept or person usually absent that is unable to respond is known as?

Date Created

December 2022

Author

bookshosting