

Analyze This: How hot will it get? This world is Heating up.

Description

Global temperatures have increased by an average of 1 degree Celsius (1.8 degrees Fahrenheit) since 1850. That's when people started using fossil & vestige fuels in high amounts to provide energy. Earth Temperature is rising up day by day due to usage of raw material, gases, fossils, fuels for producing energy, which is being used in various department to fulfill the many needs of human. Read this article in pdf format.

Category

1. Science

Tags

1. article on global warming
2. causes of global warming
3. climate change
4. effects of global warming
5. global warming
6. global warming introduction
7. global warming is caused by which gas
8. global warming meaning
9. greenhouse effect and global warming

Date Created

July 2022

Author

bookshosting